

CANDYLAND

Let me tell you about my crazy adventure on 24th December. It was a normal day. In the morning it was very dark. First, I made my breakfast, then I went to school. In the first lesson it was very nice, and I was happy. But then we got our exams back. I had a bad mark and I asked Julian K., Marlon, Julius and Samira about their marks. They had bad marks, too. We were all angry and sad. In the next lesson we were very loud and thought about an excuse for our parents. In the afternoon we met and had an idea. We climbed on the roof of our school and wanted to jump of the rooftop. "Three, two, one", we jumped, but we tumbled across the ground. We were on a different planet. First, we lay on the ground. After a few minutes we got up. We only saw chocolate. We noticed that we were in the Candyland. Suddenly Julian K. ate a piece of chocolate.

"Ahh", Julius screamed. "You ate my arm." "Oh, I`m so sorry." We found a sugar arm and put it on Julius's joint. "We must look for a little house to have a sleepover." Marlon said. Then we saw a house and went inside. There were big animals. We hid behind a wall because we were afraid of these animals. Suddenly a big bear came around the corner and he told us his name. He was very friendly and his name was John. Then the other bears came and they were friendly, too. The boss of them told us about the country where we were. There were lots of gangs in this country: The Gummi Gang (the big bears), the Sugar Streets Seventy-four, The Maomia, the Nick Kings and the Dark Lord. The Dark Lord was the King of the Candyland, but he was really bad. "We have to help this country.", Samira said. "I`ve got an idea, we can ask the other gangs for help."

So, we slept in the house of the Gummi Gang. On the next day we got up very early. It was very difficult to find the other gangs, because they had top secret hidings. So, we searched the Maomia. When we were at the coordinates we saw nothing. But then we looked down and saw the Maomia. We asked them to save the country and they said yes. We were very happy. But the problem was, that the Dark Lord knew that we were coming. He used a spell to make our weapons less strong. So, our best weapon was useless. Now we planned to fight against the Dark Lord: "First, we have to fight against the Dark Lord, then the Maomia and finally, the Gummi Gang." Then we went to Dark Lord City to fight against the Dark Lord. Our tactic worked, and we brought peace to Candyland. We were very happy.

After that every person wrote on a piece of paper who should be the next king. "The next king is..... the boss of the Sugar Streets Seventy-four, Bob. Bob is a nice guy", John said. Then the crown came. There were lots of diamonds and gold. But suddenly someone attacked us, and we fell in a gorge. I looked up and saw Mrs. Saura y Vogt with a ruler and she knocked on my table. "Don't sleep during the lesson! We have to write a test."
