

Finding a home:

If you aren't white and your name's not German,
then your chance of (not) getting a flat is already predetermined.
Even your money or job doesn't change a thing,
you won't get a home - the bias is returning.

Arabic or Turkish names make it even worse,
your landlord wants German surnames – it's like a curse.
Being a woman will make you get more replies,
but sexual harassment could be the enormous price.

And if you're asking for help because of your doubt,
if a landlord can do this, be sure you'll freak out
'cause the law(s) even help - to not pick you out.

Felix Reichelt